OUR PHILOSOPHY

It's better to have a beer with 1 person than to have 500 friends on social media.

Our Kindred Spirits Bar is serving freshly ground coffee, a rainbow of tea blends and a mind-bending range of spirits to lift the spirits. Evenings turn more intimate with the serving of bread, cheese and wine - best enjoyed shared in our cozy Living Room. Unwinding with a drink at the end of an honest day of work is the best way to understand what Zoku is all about. Need a break from work, a new idea or an unexpected breakthrough? Join our daily Fika community ritual: a coffee break at 15.30 where our members, residents and guests mingle over a free coffee or tea and a treat.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Food is enjoyed best when shared on long communal tables.

Life doesn't become more social than through sharing food. That's our founding food philosophy. At Zoku we have a strong need for simplicity. Our Living Kitchen is just that: simple and honest. Healthy food served fast. Our own rooftop garden is the source of our fresh local herbs.

Reflecting the belief that we are what we eat, our kitchen aims to physically energize, appeal to the senses and nourish the soul. Our food is served on long communal tables - ideal for salt passing and idea swapping. That residential atmosphere makes sure you can sit and chat with the chef. You'll never eat alone, if you don't want to. So just come by, enjoy a weekly changing meal with strangers and let serendipity guide your evening...
